Rockchair

RockChair is an ambitious and luxurious armchair. It would be easy to imagine it in one of the rooms of Versailles, serving as a throne for an irreverent and daring young king. The classic armchair suffers an explosion of extravagance in straight and pointed lines, using noble materials such as velvet and careful application of gold leaf on hand carved wood.

RockConsole

RockConsole is a careful and auspicious piece. Its straightest and cleanest slope is devoured by the rock mass in a paused and slow motion. This is solidified in a hard piece that is reflected in a play of finishes and colours that contrast and complement each other at the same time. A kind of Yin and Yang in a game of leftovers and glosses with unique and careful details.
