

MERIDIANI 2019

NUOVE COLLEZIONI 2019

design Andrea Parisio

Un appartamento ideale, scandito da una successione di spazi in cui il rosso e il blu si rincorrono alternandosi in ciascuno degli ambienti. Tonalità tipiche di una casa vissuta, gli inediti rosso cupo Cherry e il blu notte Navy (due delle nuove lacche che vanno ad arricchire le varianti già in collezione), sono le tinte scelte per il nuovo stand Meridiani, in ricercato contrasto con le tonalità neutre o vivaci che hanno punteggiato gli allestimenti precedenti. Cromatismi netti, capaci di dialogare virtuosamente con il rovere Tabacco, impiegato in maniera significativa per conferire calore e intimità allo stand sotto forma di ampie pannellature e scenografiche quinte. A equilibrare una palette cromatica ulteriormente arricchita dai prodotti in allestimento e dalla presenza di tessuti chiari ancora a prevalenza di rosso e blu, lo stand è realizzato come un'elegante e rigorosa scatola neutra, il cui grigio intermedio ricorre su pareti, pavimenti e moquette.

L'idea sottesa alle novità 2019 firmate da Meridiani è quella dell'alternanza tra progetti volutamente 'fuori serie', nati per sorprendere e connotati da una realizzazione complessa e virtuosistica - è il caso del tavolo da pranzo Zeno, la cui struttura si compone di un tubolare dall'ampio diametro capace di accogliere il piano, o del divano Norton Capitoné, un blocco unico dalla lavorazione capitonné declinato in una complessa successione di volumi - e altri più immediatamente identificabili, come il tavolo da pranzo Hubert, il divano Joseph e la sua 'diretta discendente', la poltroncina Josephine e, ancora, la sedia tessile Isetta. A completare questa panoramica ad alto tasso creativo, da citare che il catalogo Meridiani si arricchisce anche di Verner, mobile contenitore che rappresenta il prosieguo ideale del modello Ruben, di tre collezioni di tessuti, di quattro nuovi colori di lacche, due finiture per gli specchi e un'inedita finitura metallo.

NEW COLLECTIONS 2019

An ideal apartment, marked by a succession of spaces where red and blue chase themselves alternately in each room. Typical shades of a house with a lived in look, the new dark red Cherry and the night Navy (two of the new lacquers that will enrich the collection), are the selected colours for the new Meridiani stand, in a refined contrast with the neutral or bright tones of the previous settings. A clear chromatics is well combined with the Tobacco oak, aiming to give warmth and intimacy to the stand by using large panels and scenery flats. The stand has been conceived as an elegant and rigorous neutral box, whose light grey is used on walls, floors and carpets in order to balance the chromatic colour range enriched by the displayed products and by the presence of fabrics in light colours with the predominance of red and blue.

The idea that Meridiani wants to give with the 2019 novelties is an alternation between intentionally 'limited edition' projects, that are born to surprise and are realized in a complex and elaborated way - for example the Zeno dining table, with a tubular structure having a large diameter to support the top, or the sofa Norton Capitoné, a unique piece of capitonné worked in a complex succession of volumes - and other more immediately recognizable projects, such as the dining table Hubert, the sofa Joseph and his 'direct heir', the armchair Josephine and again, the textile chair Isetta.

To complete such a highly creative overview, it has to be mentioned that the Meridiani catalogue is also enriched by Verner, a container cabinet that represents the ideal continuation of the Ruben model, by three collections of fabrics, by four new lacquer colours, by two mirror finishes and by an original metal finish.
