THE FLAMEE SUSTAINABLE COLLECTION RETAIL MARCH 2021

THE BRAND

ELISA ATHENIENSE HOME

Elisa Atheniense Home is the branch dedicated to the homeware furniture and accessories such as ottomans, pillows, throws, and rugs as well as exquisite handcrafted, furnishing fabrics for interior design in woven leather, fur and other fine materials.

Each piece is produced from a selection of the highest quality materials. The designers have found in the essence of traditional Brazilian craftsmanship the ideal environment for continuous creations and leather transformations.

The brand carries Elisa Atheniense's own name due to her long professional history dedicated to relentless research and innovative development of leather and weaving patterns.

All our products have their unique work and are all produced in Brazil, we select each manufacturer carefully, due to their unrivaled quality, unique artisanal craftsmanship and respectful observations of sustainability norms.

MISSION To offer to our clients

high-quality products with

sophistication and beauty

THE COLOR ROOM

TCR is an atelier/showroom based in London, also dedicated for the creation of unique projects and the development of exclusive and bespoke small furnitures combined with EA Home leathers, a space dedicated for Interior Designers, Architects, Furniture Design and Interior Design companies. Each Project is particular and signed by The Color Room Interior Designer Sandra Moleirinho, who shared a long experience in the Fashion Industry before turning her singular gaze to the Home & Interior's universe, together with Elisa Atheniense.

THE DESIGNER

Elisa Atheniense is the designer behind the homonymous accessories brand and the homeware collection. Her unique aesthetics' universe is embodied by the handcrafted tradition of Weaving and Leather embellishments. Her relationship with the leather and the woven techniques begun during her academic background in Accessories Design and Pattern development in Firenze, Italy and in addition to her authorial work, she curates exclusive projects for interior design and furniture brands.

ELISA ATHENIENSE HOME is a brand dedicated to bespoke wall coverings, small furniture and homeware accessories such as cushions, throws, baskets, rugs and exquisite, handcrafted furnishing fabrics for interior design in woven leather and other refined materials. All our products are made using unique techniques and designed and all handmade in Brazil.

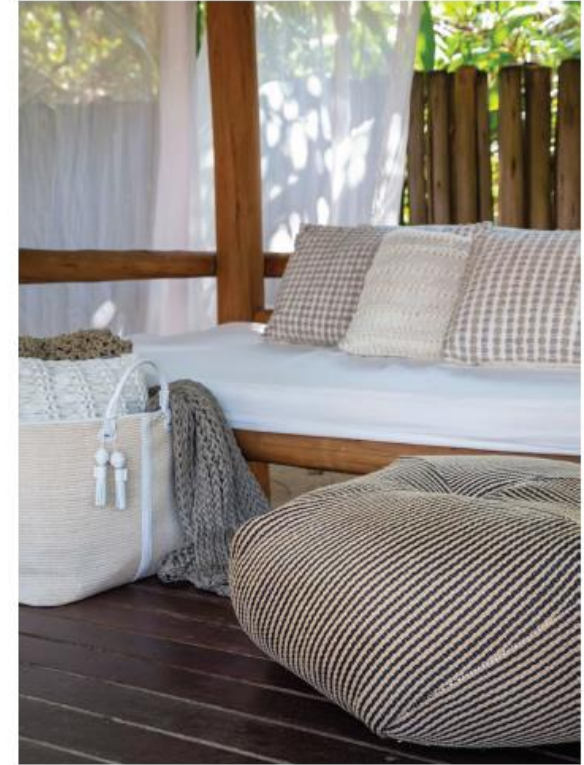

We select each manufacturer carefully due to their unrivalled quality, exceptional artisanal craftsmanship and respectful observations of sustainability norms. Ethical production is an integral part of sustainability. We ensure that every single Elisa Atheniense Home product is ethically made, sourced, and the weavers are compensated fairly for their unique and hard work.

THE FLAMEE SUSTAINABLE COLLECTION is made from a selection of organic cottons fibres, eco-friendly, hand-woven or elaborated using traditional hand-loom techniques. Carefully knitted within a trained community of women that found in their craft a way to provide for their families.

This collection combines our mission for responsible sourcing and manufacturing. Each piece is meticulously hand-loom by artisans who practised methods with age-old techniques. With a minimal electricity impact, each item crafted is therefore unique and exclusive. Weavers and artisans are the ultimate lifelines of Elisa Atheniense Home products.

la actualidad, se encuentran en un proceso de renovación y actualización. Pueden ser de diferentes tipos y colores, y se pueden encontrar en diferentes formatos y tamaños.
